What: Call to Artists for May 2012 themed exhibit The Arts Center

Where: The Arts Center, 700 SW Madison, Corvallis OR, 97333

When: Deadline, March 16, 2012 postmarked

The Arts Center Exhibition Committee is seeking proposals for a themed group exhibition in May 2012 in the Main Gallery. The exhibit is intended to be an excellent art exhibit with a theme that can be integrated in elementary school curriculum. The chosen theme is about food, agriculture, nutrition, gardening, chickens and eggs, husbandry and fishing, baking and cooking and culture and ethnicity all coming together in the title: "Fingerlicking Good, Art about Food." We hope to show artwork that has a connection with food, food production and preparation in the widest sense.

We are interested in all media, both 2 and 3 dimensional. The Exhibition Committee seeks a balanced exhibition program; in media as painting, drawing, fiber, photography, print making, sculpture etc. It is The Arts Center's goal to show work by local artists and to introduce work from artists of the larger Northwest area. Both established and upcoming artists are encouraged to submit work.

The Arts Center is located in downtown Corvallis in a late 19th century church building. The Gallery measures approx. 1200 sq feet, with 150' of linear wall space. Images from the gallery are posted on www.theartscenter.net under Exhibitions, Call to Artists.

Submissions are free of charge.
